It's time to firm up your plans to attend the 2005 Windemuth International Family Reunion. The date for this biennial event is August 10-12, 2005; the location is Frankenmuth, Michigan.

"Frankenmuth was settled by German immigrants in 1845 and proudly maintains its heritage," according to Gene and Jan Dennis, hosts for the event. Frankenmuth is one of the states' top tourist destinations with more than 3-million visitors each year. "We will be staying at the Bavarian Inn Lodge nestled on the banks of the Cass River." The hotel features five indoor pools and three whirlpools, 18-hole indoor miniature golf, Children's Village as well as restaurants and tennis courts. Your stay at the Lodge is like stepping into an Old German Fairy Tale in Michigan's "Little Bavaria."

Family activities planned during the reunion include; opening reception on August 10th, a group photo shoot, board meeting and family organization meeting on August 11th and a closing "Gunzenhausen" banquet on August 12th. Between our planned activities is plenty of unscheduled time for meeting new "cousins," catching up with distant family members and exploring the area.

Crossing the wooden bridge and walking through town treats visitors to authentic sights, sounds and tastes of German culture. In addition to exceptional shopping, and food, those interested in golf can tackle The Fortress, an 18-hole championship golf course ranked among the best in the USA. Within easy driving distance, our guests can enjoy the Great Lakes (including fishing and water sports), museums, planetarium and the Souring Eagle

Scraps of History—Wartime Messages

Carole Wintemute Bernie, descendant of George Phillip Windemuth, provided this article about her parents during WWII. The article, circa 1948, was originally published in the Hamilton Spectator, an Ontario newspaper. Carole has been secretary of the Windemuth Family Organization since 2001 and lives with her husband Roy in Hamilton. Carole may be contacted at rbirnie@mountaincable.net.

Mailed Wife 1800 Letters from Europe

Here is a tale of a really devoted husband!

When Supervisory Letter Carrier Dave Wintemute was overseas with the R.C.A.F. he sent his wife in Hamilton 1,800 letters as well as telegrams, flowers and souvenirs. That works out to about a letter and a half every day he was away, whether in England, Ireland, Scotland or Wales.

Being a Post Office man, he decided to keep a record of everything he mailed and found that the Post Office had chalked up a perfect score. There was only one item about which Mrs. Wintemute was disappointed and that was a piece of souvenir pottery, which arrived broken.

Mrs. Wintemute kept all the letters tied in neat bundles with ribbons. No doubt some years from now the youngsters will enjoy getting up to the attic to read some of these wartime messages.

Here's proof that one wife didn't use letters to keep the home fires burning when her husband was overseas. Mrs. Wintemute, Gail and the 1800 letters.

Dave saw his daughter Gail for the first time when he returned in 1945 and what a thrill that must have been. Now there are three girls and a boy in this happy family.

Casino. For those interested in genealogy, the State of Michigan Library in Lansing has an excellent collection of books and census records for Ontario and the Midwest.

Getting to Frankenmuth is easy. It is located 15 miles north of Flint, just east of I-75. The modern airport at Flint has excellent service provided by Northwest, Air Tran, ATA, Continental and Delta. Alternative airports are Detroit located 100 miles south and Midland-Bay City-Saginaw Airport located 25 miles north.

Registration details are on pages 6-9. Please make your plans now and book early.

2007 Reunion

Though the 2005 reunion is a few months away, it's time to begin thinking about a location for our 2007 gathering.

Talk with family members in your area and consider hosting the event. By moving the reunion around North America, we offer more family members the opportunity of attending.

The past 5 reunions were held in Stillwater, NJ; Colorado; Niagara Falls, Ontario; Branson, MO and Walnut Creek, CA.

Contact President Gene Dennis for more information.

A Visit to Stillwater

By Tom Cooper

Tom Cooper, descendent of Johan Georg Windemuth, visited Stillwater, NJ last summer and had the opportunity to visit the "Old Stone House" built by Johan Georg Windemuth 250 years ago. Inspired by the sketch and article on the home in our July 2004 newsletter, Tom submitted the following account of his experience along with current photos of the historic house.

Thought I'd share my recent visit to Stillwater and an every but wonderful experience. I was in the NW New Jersey area in June with a friend to see some area baseball games, and realized how close I was to Stillwater. With a state road map, and after stopping a couple times to find the right road to Stillwater, we found the general store there on a Sunday morning. Seeing an elderly woman exit the store and head for her car, I ask her, if she had lived in the area for a long time. I told her I was looking for an old stone house – probably the oldest in the area that was originally the Windemuth homestead. She smiled and said, "Yes, I know -- that's my house. Just follow me home."

Although not far from the village, and as you probably know, Johan Georg Windemuth's house from 1755 is at the end of a long dirt lane, and not really visible from the state road in the summer, with the large trees covering the front.

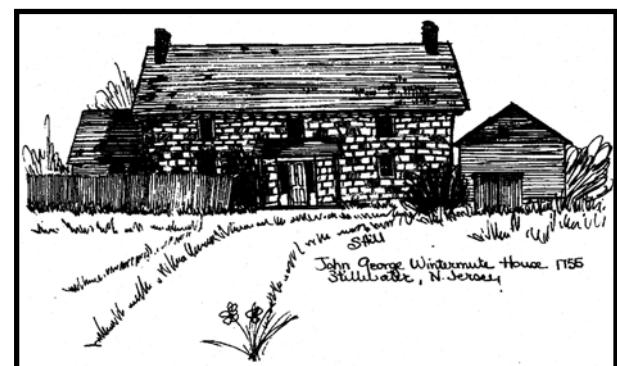

We spent a most pleasant hour with the lady, who has lived in the house for about 45 years. Her husband died last year. She is very familiar with our family's history and has a copy of the 1900 J.P. Wintermute book. She showed us the architectural and structural features of the house and directed us to the cemetery nearby, where we found the headstones to be in great shape.

If I had shown up 2 minutes earlier or later, I would have missed the "window" to our past, as I had only a couple hours to spend in the area, and might not have found the house otherwise.

The other item of genealogical significance I wanted to pass on to you was that I found reference to what probably is the passenger record of the ship taken to America by John George Windemuth. Under "Names of Foreigners Who Took the Oath of Allegiance," there is the "List of Foreigners Imported in the Ship Harle, of London, Ralph Harle, Master, from Rotterdam, Qualified Sept. 1, 1736." The list includes "Joh. Georg Windemuth" and "Joh. Christoph Windemuth." This date (1736) matches the date on JGW's headstone as the date he came to America. According to the 1900 history, his father was Johan Christoph Windemuth, but I did not believe he also emigrated. With a birth date of 1676, he would have been 60 yrs. old, so it is conceivable.

The Windemuth Family Heritage 1996 — Only $65

Jacob Perry Wintermute originally published the Windemuth Family History in 1900. In 1996, James Woodrow Wintermute chaired a committee to update and republish this important history as The Windemuth Family Heritage 1996. Quoting from the Introduction:

"This book contains the history of the family Windemuth, from the first humble beginnings in Pfungstadt, Germany in the early sixteen hundreds, and spans nearly four centuries. It is a proud history, rich in tradition and perseverance. The family Windemuth has grown from just a small handful, to many thousands. This book contains a brief history of every Windemuth descendant that we could locate, or learn about, and we located and learned about a lot of them."

The two-volume set contains more than 700 pages and was professionally published by Gateway Press, Baltimore MD at a cost of $110. The price of the remaining copies have been reduced to $65US per set.

To order your personal set, mail your request with a $65US check or money order payable to Windemuth Family Organization to:

Leonard Wintermote
PO Box 465
Elm Creek, NE 68836-0465

Include your street and postal mailing address.

Dues and Life Memberships

The payment of dues assists The Windemuth Family Organization in covering the costs of newsletter production and postage, cemetery stone restoration and cover other organizational operating expenses.

We wish to thank those members who faithfully pay their annual dues. Without you, we could not continue. Dues are $15US annually, though many members find it convenient to pay two or more years ahead.

Special thanks go out to those who have elected to become Life Members by making a single, lifetime contribution. (Life Memberships are $300US)

Have you paid your dues?

Annual dues ($15US) or Life Membership contributions ($300US) should be made payable to Windemuth Family Organization and sent to:

Signs of Wintermute

Two Windemuth descendants have submitted photos of street signs containing derivations of the original family name. We are sure 100's more exist. If you know of such a sign, please send or e-mail a photo along with any information you may have about its location and the person after whom the street was named. We will include these photos in a future newsletter.

Wintermute's Circus

The July Issue really got my attention, more so than any before.

Circus World Museum, Barbo, WI

Seeing Wintermute's Circus (July 2004, page 4) noted on the cover gave me a start. I was married to Harry Wintermute, the grandson of Thomas, who started the circus with his brothers Harry and Halsey.

Thank you for your presentation. I or

I should say we, the remaining relatives also thank you for the address of the web site. We were able to get in and get the whole history. I did get to Baraboo, WI in 1977 and Whitewater. I met Zetta Hall and her remaining siblings. It was fun.

Now I have something to pass on to my family.

Great Newsletter

As a seventh generation descendant of George Phillip Wintermute, I really enjoy receiving the Windemuth Family Newsletter and meeting so many other family members.

Kudos to the Cemetery Committee

My hats off to those on the Cemetery Committee. I visited the Stillwater Cemetery prior to the replacement stones. I also volunteered repairing and replacing stones and cutting grass at our cemetery in Phillipsburg. I know how hard it is to care for those old beauties.

Keep up the good work!

Genealogy Committee Report

By Susan Meier, Chairman

The Windemuth Organization's Genealogy Committee is established to collect for all living descendants and their posterity, genealogical data relating to the Windemuth Family. This includes all of the various spellings. Dissemination of the massive data collection on a widespread basis was undertaken when we published the 1996 Windemuth Family Heritage Books. (See page 4).

Contributions of new information, whether it is corrections, pictures, additions or lore are always welcome.

This information will be incorporated into our data base. At some time in the future, we anticipate assembling and distributing this new information. It may take the form of books, CD's or some other future technology, and it will serve as a compliment to the original volumes.

Also, we have made an effort to put Windemuth pictures on the internet. To view what we have so far, go to: www.clubphoto.com and type in mid-page (not upper left) my e-mail address: susanm1215@aol.com. Click to
